ARTISTS

Redmayne

Deservedly popular since the sixties, with a cappella or expertly accompanied songs, often with complex harmonies

The Laners

A cappella group with attitude—English traditional & shanties

Glyn Shipman

Song-writer, folk wordsmith and guitarist. Glyn sings self-penned songs, popular at our monthly singarounds

Andy Connally

Ace singer, songwriter and multi-instrumentalist in his own right—kingpin of Wet the Tea

Bandersnatch

Feel good folk-rock band featuring vocals, guitar, fiddle, bass, mandolin and more with plenty to singalong to

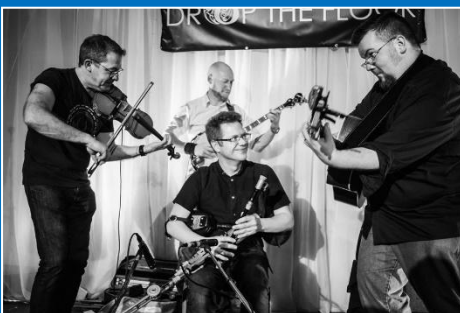

The Matilda Trio

Beautiful harmonies, rousing choruses and inspiring song choices from this three piece a cappella group

Drop the Floor

Three Lancashire lads and a Scotsman, instrumental maestros all, bring us vibrant Irish music and some stunning songs

Steve Canavan

Northern singer-songwriter performing his own witty, topical and thought-provoking ditties.

Change of Key Ceilidh Band

Energetic and varied dance music from this band of skilled local musicians for your Friday night shindig.

Peter & Barbara Snape / Poppy Weatherall

Peter & Barbara Snape / Poppy Weatherall – known for their fine singing and playing, varied, interesting and enjoyable mainly northern British songs from the powerful to the poignant..

Litany

Interesting renditions of well-selected old favourites. Great vocals— with guitar, mandolin and fiddle accompanying. New band.

Douglas/Moss

Talented duo Clare and Richard with self-penned and traditional tunes and songs in innovative arrangements .
